Women to Help Kindergarten Movement Here

Much interest is being taken in the kindergarten being sponsored under the direction of Miss Florence Quinn and which is being backed by a large group of mothers not only those residing in the neighborhood around Third and Third but from other parts of the city. Yesterday afternoon at a meeting held in the small room which serves as a school room, on Third and Third, a kindergarten association, which will make an effort to have the work put under the supervision of the school board, and to secure larger quarters.

Officers and committee chairmen chosen yesterday were: President—Mrs. Alma Lee. Vice president—Mrs. F. M. Rogers. Secretary—Mrs. M. R. Ecker. Assistant secretary—Mrs. H. W. Litten. Treasurer—Mrs. J. G. Rosenbury. Publicity chairman—Mrs. W. F. Schuchardt. Building committee—Mrs. H. W. Litten and Mrs. M. S. Ecker. Program committee—Mrs. H. W. Litten and Mrs. Q. W. Sullivan. Constitution and by-laws—Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. R. B. McDonald, Mrs. H. W. Cross and Mrs. Burdette.

Meetings of the association will be held regularly on the third Thursday of each month at 2:30 in the school room, and those already belonging are anxious to get the cooperation of other women of the city. The work will be expanded and it is hoped that favorable results will be accomplished and that the kindergarten movement in Rock Island will be furthered through the organization.

There are 20 children attending the morning session, and a number more are enrolled but cannot be accommodated, while many more would be interested in the work were it possible to have their children enrolled. Last year the work, although on a very small scale, was a decided success.

Entertains Embroidery Club.

Mrs. P. J. Zettler entertained the Joyeux Embroidery club yesterday afternoon at her home, 1200 Twelfth street. The hours were spent over fancy work, and a delicious luncheon served by Mrs. Zettler. Mrs. Lloyd Alworth will entertain the club Oct. 7 at her home, 1751 Fourteenth street, Moline.

Sew for Bazar.

Crocheting and working for the fall bazar to be given sometime in November occupied the afternoon hours at a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Oak Grove United Presbyterian church held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Oberstaler on Twenty-fourth street and Third-First avenue. The ladies, 12 in number, met at the church, where Mrs. Oberstaler met them and took them to her home by automobile. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon, and a social time was enjoyed. The next meeting, to be held Oct. 7, the place to be announced later, will be a missionary meeting. The women were taken back to the church by automobile.

Surprise Former Member.

Friends of Mrs. H. A. Grove, formerly of this city, and who is now making her home in Paonia, Colo., arrived in Rock Island Tuesday noon, for a month's visit at the home of Miss Ione Burns, 1014 Fifteenth street. Two hours after her arrival she was completely taken by surprise when the members of the Three G. club, of which she was a member, arrived to spend the first afternoon of her visit with her. Mrs. Grove had not known that her club friends were aware of her visit. The hours were most delightfully spent with sociability, and a delicious luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting of the club will be held on Oct. 19 at the home of Mrs. A. A. Gould, 431 Thirty-ninth street, Moline.

BMidge for Brides-Elect.

Mrs. James Hillyar entertained at a delightful afternoon bridge at her home, 1200 East Ninth street, Davenport, yesterday, complimenting two brides-to-be, Miss Margaret Von Maur and Miss Nancy Dow. There were six tables of the game, arranged in rooms attractively decorated with bouquets of September garden flowers, including sinias, cosmos and dahlias. Later tea was served at the small tables. There was a pretty party gift for each of the honorees, Miss Gertrude Thompson of Waukegan, D. C., the guest of Miss Dorothy Dow, and Mrs. Lucille Varie of South Bend, Ind., the guest of Mrs. John Patton, were present from out of town.

Tea for Miss Severance.

Miss Frances Severance, a bride-to-be of Sept. 29, was the honoree at a prettily appointed tea given for her yesterday afternoon at the Davenport Outing club by Mrs. Otto G. Nobis of Fairmount avenue and Miss Edna Hansen of North Harrison street, Davenport. A profusion of early autumn garden flowers decorated the club rooms. The hostesses, with Miss Severance, received some fifty guests in the south reception room. The tea table was placed in the square dining room and was adorned with a centerpiece consisting of a basket of mixed flowers, in which gladiolas predominated. Mrs. W. C. Gehrmann, Miss Laura McFar, Miss Iles Schmidt and Mrs. William Schriber assisted in the pouring.

Hostess at Prenuptial Dinner.

Miss Alberta Glasco of this city, and Alfred L. Langwith of Davenport, whose marriage will be an event of Saturday morning, Oct. 2, were the honored guests at a charmingly appointed dinner given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Langwith at their home at Seven Guests at Dinner.

Guests at the dinner, which was given at the home of Mrs. Glasco, being attractively carried out in the formal scheme and table appointments. Covers were laid for eight intimate friends. The afternoon dinner was passed informally with games of cards. Thursday evening, Sept. 23, Miss Glasco will be entertained at a dinner given at the Davenport Commercial club by the Mrs. chapter of Pi Sigma Phi, of which the bride-to-be is a member.

Plan for Card Party.

The regular meeting of the Mayflower camp, No. 101, Royal Neighbors of America, was held last evening at Math's hall and plans were discussed for a card party to be held Oct. 23 at Math's hall. A committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. Mrs. James Goff was chairman, and other committee members are Mrs. Earl Dean, Mrs. Lodie Ohge, Mrs. Philip Weber and Mrs. Sarah Hol-dorf.

Membership Tickets Forfeitable.

Associated membership tickets to the Rock Island Musical club are now procurable, and can be secured from any of the active club members at any time. The first meeting is to be held on Oct. 5, when Mrs. J. H. Hauberg will again be hostess to the club at her home.

Elected Officers.

Members of the Loyal Son's class of the Second Christian church re-organized at a meeting last night at the church, and chose the following officers to serve for the year:

President—Carl Schweiss. Vice president—Emil Block. Secretary—Will Fisher. Treasurer—Dillon Cralle. Social committee—Leslie Atkinson, L. Ritze and Glenn Atkinson. Membership committee—Harold Ritze, Harvey Crawford and Glenn Atkinson. Athletic committee—Joe Exner and Clarence Sisco. Press committee—Will Fisher. Flower committee—Arthur Behn. The regular meetings will be held on the second Monday night of each month, and it was also decided to sponsor an entertainment once each month for the members and friends of the church. Plans were discussed for a Halloween party, the date to be set later. The evening closed with selections by the new orchestra, the personnel of which is: Glenn Atkinson, piano; Leslie Atkinson, saxophone; Emil Block, clarinet; Clifford Cook and Frank Nesseler, mandolin; Robert Beck and Will Fisher, violin, and Ralph Sisco, drums.

Sew Quilt Blocks.

The afternoon was spent in sewing on quilt blocks at the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Fifteenth Avenue Christian church, held yesterday afternoon at the church. Mrs. H. B. Hebble was the hostess. The next meeting with Mrs. John Scannell as hostess.

Entertains for Daughter.

Mrs. John Gendler entertained some thirty immediate relatives at her home, 2518 Fifth avenue, last evening in honor of the third birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Rosalind. The rooms were attractively decorated with vases of a variety of garden flowers and Japanese lanterns. Singing, dancing and games of cards formed the diversion of the evening, and at midnight a delicious buffet supper was served. Little Miss Rosalind received a number of pretty gifts in honor of the occasion.

Lecot-Schmidt Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Amanda K. Schmidt, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Schmidt, 806 Seventh avenue, Rock Island, and Henry A. Lecot of Moline will be a very quiet ceremony, to be celebrated tomorrow afternoon at the chapel of St. Joseph. Rev. P. H. Durkin will officiate. Miss Schmidt will be attended by her niece, Miss Pauline Campbell, and James De Meyer of Moline, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man. The bride will wear a becoming suit of blue serge with a blue velvet hat to match. Miss Campbell will wear a blue serge dress and a hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Lecot will leave immediately on a wedding trip, the destination of which is not to be disclosed, and upon their return they will make their home with the bride's mother for the time being. Mr. Lecot is associated with an electrical concern in Moline.

Wedding of the Week.

A pretty wedding of the week was the marriage of Miss Mary Huette, daughter of Mrs. Anna Huette, 1233 Eleventh street, Moline, to William Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, Eighth street and Thirty-second avenue, Moline, which was solemnized at 7:30 Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. Walter Tiller officiated, in the presence of 60 guests. Miss Martha Huette, twin sister of the bride, attended as bridesmaid, and Glenn M. Mathes acted as best man. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Leonard Huette.

Ceremony at Church.

The ceremony took place in a corner of the living room before an improvised bower, the background of which was a mass of greenery, and underneath an enormous white wedding veil. Streamers of crepe paper, carrying out a pink and white color scheme extended from the center of the room.

Mrs. Geer Honored.

Mrs. Robert Geer, nee Miss Violet Larson of 211 Fifth avenue, Moline, a bride of Sept. 3, was entertained at a miscellaneous shower, given as a post-nuptial courtesy for her, last evening, by Miss Florence Peterson at her home, 1528 Eighteenth street, Moline. The guests were 15 intimate girl friends of the bride. Games were played, prizes going to Mrs. Arthur Larson, Mrs. Clarence Larson and to Miss Ada May Pilling. At a late hour refreshments were served in the dining room, where the gold and rose color scheme was carried out. Mrs. Geer received many pretty gifts for her new home.

Sew for Bazar.

Mrs. John Forbes was hostess at her home, 1220 Fourth avenue, yesterday, at an all day meeting of the Eastern Star social circle, when the hours were spent sewing on articles for the fall bazar. The exact date of the bazar has not been announced as yet. A delicious picnic luncheon was served at noon. Next Thursday the circle will hold another all day sewing, the place to be announced later.

Hold Social Session.

The lady Elks held a social session yesterday afternoon and five tables of 500 were played. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. C. Eberhart and Mrs. M. Myron. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. Walter Griffin, Mrs. Floyd Thompson, Mrs. Marx Harder and Mrs. W. H. Schilling. The next regular meeting of the lady Elks will be held Oct. 7 and all members are urged to attend as the annual dues are payable at that time.

Social Meeting for Teachers.

The Golden Rule bible class of the First Methodist church held a delightful social meeting at the church last evening in honor of the new teachers who recently became members of the class. The only business transacted was the appointing of a committee, of which Miss Miriam Walker is chairman.

First Meeting of Elks Club.

The first meeting of the season of the Elks club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Horst, 1235 Twenty-first avenue, Moline. It was well attended and a delightful program was given on the list of the Spanish Com-pensars. Late in the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served on buffet. The next meeting will be held Oct. 14 at the home of Mrs. Charles Myers, 534 West Eighth street, Davenport.

Winner Beant for Guests.

Paul and Leslie Scharrer of 2603 Seventeenth street entertained a company of 34 friends at a winner roast, honoring Miss Marie Ghish of Bloomington, who is a guest at the Scharrer home. The company journeyed out the Twenty-fourth street road and stopped at a most suitable spot, where the camp fire was kindled and the winners and marshmallows roasted. Singing and games were enjoyed around the fire after the feast.

Ladies' Sewing Circle.

The ladies' sewing circle of the Evangelical Church of Peace met yesterday afternoon in the church. There were 16 members present and the hours were spent quilting. Later a luncheon was served by the regular refreshment committee.

Party at Camp for Miss Robb.

Last evening Miss Katherine Robb, who is to marry Emil A. Johnson next month, was honored at a pre-nuptial party given by the members of the choir of the First Baptist church at the Carlton Taylor camp on Rock river. Three guests enjoyed the beautiful moon-light evening hours together, singing and visiting following the 6:30 camp supper. Miss Robb was presented with any number of useful gifts, the affair being in the nature of a kitchen shower. Other affairs are being planned to honor Miss Robb in the weeks before her marriage.
